

As part of the Outreach Ambassador Programme conducted by NParks, the P4 pupils visited the Bukit Timah Nature Reserve over several Monday and Friday afternoons. In groups, the pupils approached visitors in the nature reserve to carry out a survey and to convey environmental messages such as not feeding animals in the reserve. A few selected pupils also helped in making dragonfly craftwork that was used as part of the launch of Chestnut Nature Park North.

Pupils at work creating dragonflies

Look at our creation!

Pupils doing a survey with a member of the public at the Nature Reserve