

Code for Fun Enrichment Programme

This year, our school rolled out the Code for Fun Enrichment Programme for all P1 to P6 pupils to increase their exposure in coding and computational thinking. This programme incorporates visual-based programming language (Scratch) and combines with robotic kits (MoWay and micro:bits) to create a fun and interactive coding experience for the pupils.

